THE STORY SO FAR . . .

Saya Otonashi lived peacefully with her adoptive family in Okinawa, but she suffered from amnesia and an odd physiology. She was a part of the Miyagusuku household, living with brothers Kai and Riku and also with George, the head of the family. After her adoptive brother Riku was kidnapped, she traveled to Vietnam to find him—where she encountered vicious Chiropterans, the mysterious, vengeful Charles, and secrets from her past.

Saya is actually one of the vampiric organisms called Chiropterans, and she was born in 1833 in Bordeaux, France, at a biological experimentation compound known as “The Zoo.” Aided by Hagi, her loyal Chevalier, Saya hunted and killed fellow Chiropterans throughout the ages, before going into deep hibernation.

With the help of David and other members of the Red Shield—a secret organization also dedicated to the eradication of Chiropterans—Saya and company sought to rescue Riku in Vietnam. After Riku was mortally wounded in a battle with an enemy Chevalier, Saya saved his life with a taboo “bloodsharing technique” that granted Riku immortality . . . but also made him bound to Saya as her new Chevalier.

When Diva, Saya’s vicious twin, awakened from her own long hibernation period, she united her own Chevalier (Solomon, Nathan, James, and big brother Anshell) with the one goal of capturing Riku Miyagusuku and making him her bridegroom . . .

I MADE CARL A CHEVALIER SO I'D HAVE A PLAYMATE...BUT NOW HE'S DEAD!

HE NEVER PLAYS WITH ME!

ES-PECIALLY LATELY! ALL HE TALKS ABOUT IS RESEARCH, RESEARCH, RESEARCH!

"DON'T YOU HAVE A NAME?"

SAYA-NEESAMA ...
